

The Catholic Church in Jersey

One Catholic Parish for the Island of Jersey

7/8 July 2018 ~ Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time ~ Year B

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

It was a strange coincidence that just before we bade farewell to the Beaulieu Sisters, we should have heard that the Little Sisters would also be leaving. We are sad to see both communities leave the Island, but we appreciate the reasons they give about the lack of young sisters to take over their work.

However, when I was asked on the radio or by individuals, why the sisters are leaving I replied: "Because parents do not encourage their daughters to embrace the Religious Life, at least not in these traditional orders". Our culture speaks to children of the importance of making a success of their lives in a career or well-paid job. It doesn't speak to teenagers of the beautiful but challenging vows of poverty, chastity and obedience undertaken out of personal love for Jesus Christ. Our young Sisters of Bethany are the exception.

Yes, lay teachers have replaced the sister-teachers at Beaulieu and built up a good school. Lay nurses could do the same at the home currently run by the Little Sisters, if plans already underfoot come to fruition for a local rescue operation to ensure a continuing of the work, which the Sisters began.

Today is Sea Sunday when we might apply the story of the storm on the Sea of Galilee to our situation in the Church today, when we can sometimes feel insecure, especially when unexpected storms envelop us. We have to remember that although Jesus may seem to be asleep, as he did in that famous boat of the Apostles, he is still travelling with us on our earthly journey. We have to trust and cry out to him in prayer.

Father Nicholas

SEA SUNDAY

This Sunday is Sea Sunday, when the Church prays for all those who live and work at sea. Without them we would not have most of the items we buy in the shops. Today's second collection is for Apostleship of the Sea (AoS), the Church's official maritime welfare agency. It supports seafarers both practically and spiritually. This collection is vital to enable it to continue its work, so please give generously and remember seafarers in your prayers. Thank you. To donate online please visit their website:

We are now at a stage when we wish to appoint a person to take on a Pastoral Assistant's role with increased responsibilities in Youth and Family Life Ministry. This position will be under the supervision of the Youth Chaplain and the Coordinator of Pastoral Ministries. The hours may be negotiable but will be between 20 – 25 hours per week. If you are interested in applying for this new role and would like further information, please in the first instance, contact Fr Benjamin: btheobald@portsmouthdiocese.org.uk / tel 720235.
